TWO MILLION DOLLARS FOR SCHOOL AID ASKED

Justice of the Peace and Constable Contests To Be Decided Next Tuesday

Two-way contests in the races for both Justice of the Peace and Constable of Campbell Township will be decided next Tuesday. The campaign has provided Campbell with four contestants, each of whom would be an asset to the office he seeks.

Vying for the Justice of the Peace post are Attorney Martin S. Walsh, former Justice of the Peace of the City of Santa Clara, and Raymond Foster Kuntz, retired Navy lieutenant. A native of Santa Clara Valley, Walsh attended Santa Clara schools and was graduated from the law school of the University of Santa Clara. He has practiced law in this area for many years and is a member of both the State and County Bar Associations.

Kuntz, a retired Navy man, is a native of Tennessee. After 30 years of Navy service he was retired with the rank of lieutenant in 1947. After retirement he was in the real estate business for two years in San Jose, then moved to Campbell where he was appointed crossing guard for school children using the Winchester-Campbell Avenue intersection. He is also a deputy sheriff in this county.

CONSTABLE CANDIDATES

Incumbent constable Ethan E. Lanphear and Jack E. Chappell seek election to the office of Campbell Constable. Lanphear has held the office since 1941, when he was appointed by the County Board of Supervisors. He has resided in this community since 1912.

He was assistant manager and manager of the Saratoga bank for seven and six years, respectively, and also managed banks in Newman and Concord. He was manager and executive secretary of the Campbell Community Council for five years, is a driver of the high school bus, a member of the Kiwanis Club and the local fire commission, a director and secretary of the town sanitary board and a member of the Footlights theatrical group.

Jack Chappell has lived here since 1946. During the war he served in the US Marine Corps for three years, receiving the bronze star, Navy unit commendation and presidential citation for action in the Pacific campaign.

He is captain of the Campbell Volunteer Legion Patrol which has been deputized as a law enforcement group in this community, and as a member, is a special deputy of the Santa Clara County Sheriff's office. He is a member of the Campbell Volunteer Fire Department and American Legion Post 596 of Campbell. He and his wife have one child, Jacalyn.

Navajoland Film To Be Shown Here

"Navajoland," a sound film in brilliant color, will be shown at the Campbell Seventh-Day Adventist Church, at 4th and Rincon Avenue, on Sunday night, June 4, at 8:30. There will be no admission charge, but an offering will be taken for the benefit of the Navajos by Marvin Walter, missionary among the Navajos, who will present the film.

An authentic portrayal of the Navajo way of life, this new motion picture boldly examines the plight of the much-publicized Indian tribe. Sympathetically it tells the story of a people struggling against economic handicaps, disease, illiteracy and evil spirits. Dramatically it shows the influences of Christianity on a race whose language has no word for an omnipotent God.

Unforgettable are the scenes of Grandma Scott grinding corn, 12-year-old Pauline weaving a rug, the hazardous journey of an army ambulance over "one of the worst roads in the whole world," a gaily dressed Indian maiden gracefully mounting her horse, young Navajo boys hanging up the Monday morning wash at a mission school, and missionary Walter's visit with Old Dalkai, aged blind Navajo who lives under a juniper tree.

The burial of a tiny Navajo baby symbolizes the pathos and despair lurking among 60,000 Indians who nevertheless preserve a sly sense of humor that is characteristic of their race.

Added to the colorful beauty of such reservation scenic landmarks as the Painted Desert and Twin Buttes are the excellent narration by Ned Barnstow and a weird Navajo sacred chant which was recorded on the reservation.

Entertaining as well as educational, this documentary film at least partially answers the perplexities arising from conflicting beliefs surrounding this Indian tribe. "Navajoland" was written and photographed by Donn Henry Thomas.

Rotarians Query Office Seekers

Three of the four candidates for the office of 29th district state assemblyman were speakers at the Campbell Rotary Club luncheon meeting Monday in the IOOF Hall. President Forrest Reese presided. Among the visiting Rotarians was the Rev. Joyce Farr of the First Methodist Church, San Jose. When introduced and asked his occupation, he replied, "Fire Insurance." Another guest was James Harmon, who was introduced by his father, L. W. Harmon.

Speakers were Jack Halstead, Charles S. Gubser and R. O. Del Muto. Each gave a brief outline of his background and a review of principle issues on which he is basing his campaign.

Gubser, who has received official endorsement of the county Republican committee, is a graduate of San Jose State College and the University of California. He is a farmer and former teacher. Principle issues in his platform are water, conservation, education and decentralization of government.

Del Muto, a democrat, is a graduate of the University of Santa Clara. He stated he would endeavor to work with other legislators for the good of the county and state, if elected. A firm believer in the Central Valley Authority, he urged that Santa Clara Valley obtain its water through the CVA, and voiced support of the Folsom Dam project.

Halstead's main plank is water. He proposed recovery of 26,000 acre feet of sewer water, additional water from the proposed San Lucas Dam to be brought here by gravity canal via Gilroy, the Delta-Mendota Canal and more water from Calaveras Dam. Referring to the latter, he said the city of San Francisco can let the water rights without a municipal election; however, proposed outright purchase of the dam would require a vote of the San Franciscans. Cheapest method of bringing water from Calaveras dam would be construction of an open ditch, he said.

The candidates were the targets of pointed queries during the question period which followed. Del Muto, when asked his opinion of lobbyists, replied he believes a good lobbyist is alright.

Possible use of sewage water was explained by Halstead, who stated that secondary water is drinkable, although it may have an unpleasant flavor. He added that secondary water has a large percentage of nitrogen which will make it excellent for irrigation purposes. The water could be returned to percolation beds to increase the water tables and, actually, would be free water.

Gubser picked up a question about possible dictatorships under the county charter, now under attack in the courts. As a member of the original 15 Freeholders, who prepared the charter, he said the board sought to differentiate between administrative and policy-making officers. Thus, administrative officers would be appointed, while the policy-making officers would be elected.

Del Muto, who had hedged on a definite statement of policy, said he feared dictatorship in government under the county charter. Gubser replied that the county manager, were he to entertain any ideas of dictating to the county, could be fired on 24 hours' notice.

Headline Error

Due to erroneous handling of a headline in last week's paper, the impression was given that the entire Campbell Grange had officially endorsed its Grange Master, Attorney Martin S. Walsh, for Justice of the Peace of Campbell Township. The story beneath the headline was correct in stating that 14 members of the Grange had given Attorney Walsh their official endorsement. By-laws of the National Grange prohibit endorsement of any political party or candidate by a subordinate grange. Members, as individuals, may act for themselves.

Bucs' Cove Season Plans Outlined By Miss Muriel Carson

Miss Muriel Carson, who will again direct the Bucs' Cove summer recreation program at Campbell Union High School this summer, has announced a tentative program for the season. Committees have been appointed, and the preparation is being carried on entirely by the students. Date of the opening is to be announced within the coming week.

Weekly program of events, according to the tentative schedule, will be as follows: swimming Monday or Tuesday nights at the Woodrow Wilson pool; basketball, Tuesday and Thursday nights; folk dancing Wednesday nights; dance and social program, Friday nights. Facilities for ping pong and other games will be available during the week nights.

Bucs' committee will meet on June 19 to elect officers. Chaperonage during the season will be provided by St. Lucy's Evening Guild for the first part of each week and the high school Parent-Teacher Association during the latter part of each week. Adult volunteer help is needed to help operate the soda fountain. For further information call Miss Carson at the high school.

The Campbell Women's Service Club has donated $37 for purchase of a ping pong table and records. Over 50 percent of the purchase price for a television set has been raised, and more donations are being sought.

CUHS Plot Plan Given Tentative Approval By Rivers

Paul Rivers of the State Department of School House Planning has given tentative approval to the plot plan for the building program at Campbell Union High School. Program was made possible through voters' approval of the $950,000 bond issue last month. Final approval must come from the staff of the department, according to District Superintendent Laurence J. Hill, after which plans for the actual buildings will be started. Funds from the bond issue probably will be available after August 1.

Hill said he has been conferring daily with Birge Clarke of the architectural firm of Clarke and Stromquist which has been retained for the project. Shops and physical education buildings probably will get underway first.

Meanwhile, preparations for lighting the high school football field are going ahead. "It is problematical whether the lighted field will be ready in time for the football season," he said. "To safeguard ourselves, we have engaged Townsend Field at Santa Clara for three night games, those with Bel-Air, Santa Clara and Lincoln."

The entire electrical system must be tied in with the football field lights for economy and electrical rate purposes, and engineers have been at work on this phase for the past two weeks.

Adult Fellowship To See Slides Of European Tour

Young Adult Fellowship of the Methodist Church will have a business meeting at 6 p.m. Sunday in the parish house. This will be followed by slides and a report on her experiences on her recent trip to Europe by Miss Jeanette Collins, teacher at Campbell Grammar School.

All young adults of the church are invited to attend. During the summer the group meets on the first and third Sunday evenings of each month instead of every Sunday night.

Jeanne Jensen Suffers Injuries In Auto Crash

Jeanne Jensen, 18, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver C. Jensen of Campbell, suffered severe facial cuts, a broken right arm and other injuries in an auto accident Monday at 5:15 p.m. on the old Santa Cruz highway below Chemekeeta Park. She was a passenger in a car returning from Santa Cruz.

In addition to the above injuries she received a sprained left hand, chipped knee cap, two broken front teeth and bruises. Mrs. Jensen said today that her daughter is at home and the 41 stitches in her face were removed today. The young woman is much improved and probably will have only minor facial scars as a result of her injuries.

Five Complete New Schools Planned By Campbell Elementary School District

Application was filed Monday with the Local Allocation Division of the State Department of Finance at Sacramento calling for state school building aid for the Campbell Elementary School District in the amount of $1,962,367.44. The board of trustees submitted the application.

District Superintendent William C. Henley said the building aid program includes completion of the three existing schools, addition of a shop and music building at the Campbell Grammar School, a small district administration building and construction of five complete additional schools, all of which are planned with offices, cafeteriums, and sufficient classrooms to accommodate approximately 400 students each.

Funds for school equipment are included in the program, but there is a question as to whether state aid funds may be used for purchase of equipment, Henley added. An opinion has been requested of the State Attorney General's office.

The application, he said, can be amended according to the final outcome of the Bradley Manor annexation issue. Moorpark School, one of the three schools in the district, is in the Bradley Manor district.

SMALL BOND ISSUE
A very small portion of the money will have to be raised by local bonds to qualify the district to receive state aid. The qualifying election probably will be held in the fall.

Approximately 2400 pupils are currently enrolled in three schools of the district. According to enrollment estimates for the fall of 1951, based on a count of houses under construction, subdividers' signed intentions to build, and a pre-school census applied to a state formula, enrollment in the schools will be over 4,000.

Unfinished buildings at the schools house 20 classrooms which would be completed under the building aid program. The five schools provided under the application would be located in various parts of the district. Actually, the district now owns one undeveloped site, approximately six acres on Hazelwood Avenue off Budd Avenue.

"Our greatest need is at the primary level," commented the district superintendent. "We now have five eighth grades and thirteen first grades. According to the community survey there are as many children at home now under four and one-half years as are enrolled in the entire elementary school setup. That statement gives some idea of the problem we face."

"By means of the program submitted we hope to have building relief by the fall of 1951. If we cannot accomplish relief, double sessions are again inevitable."

"Gubser understands Santa Clara Valley's water problem and he's the best qualified man to work for solution to that and many other problems facing our county in the State Legislature."

"We have a strong Gubser for Assemblyman committee set up throughout the district," Agler said.

In a recent visit to Campbell, Gubser declared that he stood for return of government to the people; for a balanced state budget; for adequate educational facilities for the rapidly increasing school population; and for "a prompt and practical water program at a price we can pay."

Gubser, a Gilroy dirt farmer and small businessman, is a candidate

Frank Smith Claims Patricia Hoyt In Wedding Ceremony At St. Lucy's

Miss Patricia Ann Hoyt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Hoyt of Campbell, was married to Frank Smith last Sunday in a wedding ceremony performed at 3:30 p.m. at St. Lucy's Church. The Rev. Denis Kennelly officiated.

For her wedding ensemble, the bride wore a pink suit with blue and white accessories and a corsage of white orchids. Her sister, Mrs. Marion Testa, served as matron of honor. Mrs. Testa was attired in a pink suit accented by Navy blue and white accessories and a corsage of baby roses.

Best man was Robert Smith, brother of the bridegroom.

After the wedding, a reception was held in the Campbell IOOF Hall. Later the wedding party, members of their families and a great number of relatives who came here for the wedding were guests at a dinner party given at the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Smith of Campbell.

For the wedding of her daughter, Mrs. Lewis Hoyt chose a flower print dress with orchid corsage. Mrs. Arthur Smith wore a blue and white frock and orchid corsage.

After a four-day wedding trip to Lake Tahoe, the couple have established their home here at the Campbell Apartments. Both are graduates of Campbell High School, where the new Mrs. Smith was affiliated with the Seetaubs Tri-Y. Her husband is with the Santa Clara Stove Company. He is the brother of Robert Smith, Mrs. Doris Testa, Mrs. Rosemary Blauser, Mrs. Adelaide Antes and Mrs. Maude Holeman. Mrs. Smith is the sister of Maurice Hoyt, US Marine Corps, and Mrs. Marion Testa.

"I very deeply appreciate the outstanding work he has done with the Armed Services Committee during the 81st Congress.

Jack Anderson secured the adoption of a law which will save this country millions of dollars in peace times, and perhaps billions in case of war, by setting up a single supply catalogue for the Armed services and civilian agencies.

I served with Anderson on the old Naval Affairs through the war years, and know of the fine job he did there. Now, as Chairman of the House Armed Services Committee, I want to express my appreciation to Jack Anderson, and say that I look forward to working with him on our great defense problem.

Edith Beal Badger, Former Resident, Dies In San Jose

Edith Beal Badger, who resided for many years in the Sunnyoaks Avenue area of Campbell, died Saturday in San Jose. A native of Stockton, she came here in the early 1900's. She and her first husband, Ira Beal, had a ranch in the Sunnyoaks district.

Mrs. Badger was active in many circles of the community. She was one of the first presidents of the Campbell Elementary School Parent-Teacher Association, a member of the Campbell High School PTA and a charter member of the Pundita Circle. The latter is a neighborhood study group organized in the Sunnyoaks region about 40 years ago.

When her daughter entered San Jose State College, Mrs. Badger, too, became a student at the college, taking a course of specialized studies and teaching another course in weaving which she had learned in Berkeley. She also, at one time, taught weaving and other crafts at Los Gatos.

In 1924 or 1925 Mrs. Badger moved from Campbell to San Jose. She operated the Badger Rest Home on Plummer Avenue, San Jose until her retirement in 1945, after which she moved to Napa. She was ill for many months prior to her death.

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday at the Chapel of Roses in Oak Hill Memorial Park.

Mrs. Badger, who was the widow of the late Edward J. Badger, is survived by her son, Ira A. Beal Sr., Tucson, Arizona. She was the sister of Mrs. George Burnett, Lloyd Castle and Charles Castle, all of Tulare, grandmother of Ira A. Beal Jr., of San Jose, Lawrence Beal of San Francisco and Herbert Beal of Australia. She was the aunt of Mrs. Edith White Pierce of Napa, Mrs. Betty Warrin Munger of Tulare, Douglas Castle of Elko, Nevada, and Linden Castle of Salt Lake City, Utah. Mrs. Badger also leaves four great-grandchildren and three great-nephews and nieces. Her daughter, Helen Beal, died some years ago.

Richard Gordon Re-elected President Of Campbell Teachers' Association

Closing a most successful year for the Campbell Teachers' Association, the annual election of officers was conducted Wednesday evening at the Campbell Elementary School. President Richard Gordon presided at the meeting. Reports of the committees were heard, revealing a year of activity and progress.

The report of the finance committee, under chairmanship of Thelma Wathon, was particularly commended, and the committee was extended a vote of thanks by the membership for its research work and its effort toward bettering salaries of teachers in the district.

Officers elected for the ensuing year were: president, Richard Gordon, who succeeds himself. Mr. Gordon is director of instrumental music of the Campbell School District; vice-president, Mrs. Irma di Benedetto, first grade teacher in the Moorpark School, the vice-president automatically becomes chairman of the professional relations committee; secretary, Mrs. Eda Belle Little, fifth grade teacher in the San Tomas school; treasurer, Mr. Marcus Swengel, sixth grade teacher and newly-appointed vice-principal of the Moorpark School.

Outgoing officers are: vice-president, Miss Ruth Metzger; secretary, Annabelle Madson; treasurer, Calvin Roll.

In addition to the regular officers, the following directors were elected: Mr. Calvin Roll, eighth grade teacher at Campbell; Mr. William Shuey, principal of San Tomas School, and Miss Helen Prindle, third grade teacher at Moorpark School.

Through the past year of successful endeavor the Campbell Teachers Association has brought members of the faculties of the schools throughout the district into closer relationship. Qualified speakers at their meetings have assisted in the advancement of education, and the members have actively participated in school and community affairs. Recently they organized a teachers' orchestra and chorus under Mr. Gordon's direction.

Neal Royer To Direct Recreation Program For Campbell School District; Swimming, Music May Be Included

An eight-week summer recreation program will be sponsored this summer by the Campbell Elementary School District at the three schools in the district. Neal Royer, Campbell Grammar School teacher, has been appointed director of the program to be conducted during July and August, District Superintendent William C. Henley announced today.

Playground supervisors appointed are Miss Margaret Enas, teacher at San Tomas School; Miss Dorothy Wilkinson, teacher at Campbell Grammar School; and Miss Beatrice Hohman, teacher at the Campbell Grammar School and resident of the Beverly district.

Details of the program are still to be worked out, but the board of trustees is hopeful of including, besides the playground schedule, a summer swimming program such has been conducted in past years. In addition, it is hoped that a summer music program will be developed.

Volunteer workers are to be recruited through the schools and Parent-Teacher Associations. Other agencies have made contributions in support of the program, in particular, the Los Gatos-Saratoga branch, American Association of University Women, whose membership includes a number of Campbell women.

Softball leagues playing at the Campbell Grammar School are functioning under the direction of the Campbell Softball Commission, which is an agency of Campbell Union Elementary School District and is responsible to the board of trustees of the district.

Pomona Home Ec Mt. View Club Hold Affair

Santa Clara County Pomona Grange Home Economics Club met May 22 at the Women's Club on San Antonio Road with the Mountain View Club as hostesses. A potluck dinner at 12 o'clock preceded the business meeting. Tables were decorated with sweet peas and maypoles.

Chairman Florence Sheffer presided and told of her visits to other clubs, including the Contra Costa County Pomona at Walnut Creek, the Amador-El Dorado Pomona at Gold Hill Grange and the First District H.E.C. at Redding, National Flora. Mrs. Elizabeth Sehmeyer and State H. E. chairman Mrs. Mabel Glenn were also guests at these affairs. The meeting at the Amador-El Dorado club was at the home of Mrs. Corrine Miller near where gold was discovered in California. Mrs. Miller first produced the Gold Hill iris which has been shown at many fairs, according to Mrs. Sheffer.

State Assemblyman Jack F. Thompson was introduced by Elsa Swanson of Mt. Hamilton Grange and gave an interesting talk on legislation and the water program, telling of his part in making possible the building of the Lexington and Anderson dams and other potential sources of water for Santa Clara Valley. Mrs. Swanson presented plans for the Grange straw-

Stuffed animals and dolls were presented by various groups for the Golden Rule Committee to distribute to children at the County Hospital. Entertainment was furnished by the Mountain View club and included piano and vocal numbers by their members.

The June meeting will be held in the Morgan Hill Grange Hall with Morgan Hill H.E.C. as hostesses.

County Penwomen Sponsor Short Story Contest

Announcement of a short story contest sponsored by Santa Clara County Branch, National League of American Penwomen, was made this week. The contest, open to Santa Clara County women, exclusive of league members, will close August 15.

Winners will be feted at the group's October meeting. First and second prize will be ten and five dollars respectively. There also will be three "honorable mentions."

Contest chairman Ida M. (Mrs. William) Smith, 1736 Cowper St., Palo Alto, outlined the following rules:

Only one story of not more than five thousand words may be submitted by each contestant; manuscripts must be submitted anonymously, each being accompanied by an envelope bearing story title on the outside, and author's name and title sealed within. This sealed envelope should also contain a self-addressed stamped envelope for return; all entries must be mailed to the contest chairman between August 6 and August 15. Judges will be announced later.

Thompson Obtains Facts On Calaveras Dam Question

Assemblyman Thompson, candidate for State Senate, reports that a great many of his constituents in view of the publicity on the Calaveras Dam have inquired of him as to the possibilities of acquiring it for agricultural purposes for Santa Clara Valley farmers. Thompson states that he contacted the Mayor's office in San Francisco and has received a letter from them to the effect that the Calaveras Dam could not be released except by a vote of the electors of that city and county.

Section 123 of the County Charter of San Francisco states that "The Board of Supervisors shall have the power to lease or sell any public utility or any part thereof; provided that any ordinance or other measure involving the lease or sale of any public utility or part thereof, except as provided in Sections 92 and 93 of this Charter, or any ordinance granting any new franchise for the operation of any public utility whose franchise has expired, or is about to expire, must be referred and submitted to a vote of the electors of the City and County at the election next ensuing not less than sixty days after the adoption of such ordinance, and shall not go into effect until ratified by a majority of the voters voting thereon."

There is also a serious legal doubt, the letter states, as to whether the City could relinquish Calaveras water for agricultural purposes in view of the Raker Act. But if that were possible, it could not do so without a vote of the people.

Thompson, however, states that this might be possible if the supervisors of both counties were to agree on a program and then submit it to the voters. The acquisition of the Calaveras Dam, Thompson states, could take care of a great part of the immediate needs of the Valley until a permanent program could be worked out. He further states he will confer with the members of the Santa Clara Water District on the entire matter. Thompson went to the City of San Francisco a year ago on the possibility of getting the Calaveras Dam for Santa Clara County.

Dairy Sequence In Ice Follies

Even if McDonald couldn't have imagined so much fun could be had on the farm as is seen in the gay, colorful production sequence, "Dairyville, U.S.A.," one of the highlights of the all new Shipsteads and Johnson "Ice Follies of 1950" opening at San Francisco's Winterland Wednesday night, June 7. More than 90 members of the cast appear in the 20-minute sequence, which has proved one of the most popular in "Ice Follies" history. Stars of the number are the pretty, mirror-image, Scott-vold twins, Joanne and Joyce.

"Dairyville, U.S.A." opens with a complete dairy farm on ice—caricature cows, glamorized milk maids, colorful chore boys—presided over by Farmer Brown, portrayed by Carlos Romero. They enliven the routine of everyday farm life with fast-stepping figure skating.

The scene changes, and a cottage appears on the ice in the early hours of dawn. Miniature milk trucks come on the ice, and a half dozen gigantic milk bottles appear and glide through a comic interlude.

The entire number comes to a climax with the appearance on the ice of giant-size ice cream cones, wedges of cheese, huge prints of butter, gigantic containers of milk and other products of the dairy.

San Jose People Protest Another 'Winchester House'

Residents of Arleta Avenue, San Jose, apparently do not want a counterpart of Campbell's Winchester House, it was revealed when they petitioned against Mrs. Mary Matsuko's plea to the County Planning Commission to give her a use permit to build a second small building on her property at 553 Arleta Avenue.

She appeared before the Santa Clara County Board of Supervisors Monday, May 22, to protest the "false statements" made about her to the planning commission by her neighbors. She did not, as her neighbors claim, intend to erect "another Winchester House." The building she planned is only 23x20 feet, she added.

Nestor Barrett, planning commission director-secretary, informed supervisors that the neighborhood is restricted to one-family dwellings and that other residents had protested the proposed new structure.

Supervisors set Monday, June 5, at 2:30 o'clock as date and time for a public hearing on the appeal.

French Youth Seeks California Horticultural Work

A young Frenchman who is interested in learning California horticultural methods is desirous of finding such work in the state, it was announced recently by Herbert S. Shuey, district governor of the Rotary Club, who received the notice from the secretary of the Rotary Club of Condom-Armagnac, France.

The young man is 24 years old, speaks English and promises to give his best efforts to anyone able to employ him. Mr. Shuey reports that anyone who can help him by supplying him with such work can contact him (Shuey) at 582 Market Street, San Francisco.

Headline Error

Due to erroneous handling of a headline in last week's paper, the impression was given that the entire Campbell Grange had officially endorsed its Grange Master, Attorney Martin S. Walsh, for Justice of the Peace of Campbell Township. The story beneath the headline was correct in stating that 14 members of the Grange had given Attorney Walsh their official endorsement. By-laws of the National Grange prohibit endorsement of any political party or candidate by a subordinate grange. Members, as individuals, may act for themselves.

Jordan Clarifies Election Rules

Misunderstandings and over-zealous election workers are causing headaches to California's Secretary of State Frank M. Jordan. Jordan declared many precinct workers, either through lack of proper knowledge or downright misrepresentations, were informing prospective voters they would not be able to vote for candidates of a different political registration.

"This, of course, is permitted, providing the candidate has crossed-filed," Jordan explained. "In other words, a candidate may be registered as a Democrat and filed also on the Republican ticket. This means a Republican voter would be permitted to cast his ballot for the candidate."

Jordan said many newly registered voters were puzzled over certain other phases of California's modern election laws.

"The question also frequently raised comes from those 204,348 men and women who declined to state their party affiliations," Jordan said. "Those persons may vote only on non-partisan state and county offices and on propositions."

Legion Auxiliary Member Reveals Poppy Benefits

How disabled veterans of both world wars are aided by Poppy Day contributions was described recently by Mrs. Guy Smith, Rehabilitation Chairman of the American Legion Auxiliary.

"The dimes, quarters and dollars which people contribute in exchange for the memorial poppies form the backbone of the financial support for the extensive activities carried out constantly by the auxiliary for the welfare of the disabled vets," Mrs. Smith pointed out.

If it were not for the generosity of millions of people who wear the

Stepovich Chosen CUHS President At Student Polls

Alex Stepovich was elected president of Campbell Union High School student body Thursday, May 25, when students went to the polls to choose him and members of the student council.

Those who won the student council posts are Dave Baxter, Jack Bray, Pauline Cleveland, and Jim Heaton. Incumbent council members are Stepovich, Barbara Shockley and Tom Takata.

Vice-president, secretary and student manager will be selected by the council before the end of the semester. The council, which is the students' legislative body, confirms appointment of the various commissioners to be made by the student manager.

Election attracted a high degree of student interest, culminating in a 70 percent vote. Student Manager Dudley Herschbach pointed out this was a good figure in that students had a 35-minute noon period in which to vote plus the time before and after school before they had to meet bus schedules.

Poppy Day contributions are used to bring comfort to disabled vets in the hospital. They also provide aid for disabled vets outside of hospitals who are having difficulties in establishing themselves economically. They care for the children of such veterans, also.

Mrs. Smith and other auxiliary members distributed poppies last Friday.

Indians Nose Bucs In Valley Finals

Campbell's varsity track team came within five and one-half points of the SCVAL championship in the valley finals held last Friday night at the Fremont track oval. The difference between the two teams was Johnny Mesa, fleet-footed sprinter. Johnny earned three firsts for Fremont for a total of 24 points and also ran a leg on the Fremont relay team.

Bill Kincaid of Campbell won the 880 in the very good time of 2:05. Bill had to come fast in the last 40 yards to overtake Feit of Campbell who set the pace all the way. It was a race right down to the tape and Kincaid had to go all out to nose out Voshall and Navarette from Los Gatos and Santa Clara respectively.

Rod Kolze, who was favored in the mile came through in fine style to nose out Tafoya from Santa Clara on the last turn.

Charlie McBain pulled the upset of the night as he upset the favorites Loftis and Darnell of Fremont and Los Gatos respectively in the 180 yard low hurdles. McBain has shown fine style and spirit all year and certainly earned his victory.

Del Ambler showed up well in the finals after playing a full season of baseball. He took a first in the broad jump with a leap of 20'4" and also took a fourth in the 100 yard dash.

Bob Praena, another baseball player showed up well in the finals with a third in the broad jump.

Jack Bray did 5'8" in the high jump to tie for first place with Loftis of Fremont. Jack did exceptionally well due to the fact he has only done 5'8" once this season.

The Campbell C relay team composed of Musladin, Allen, Barton and Stephens tied the valley record for this event. Musladin also tied the class C record in the 50 and 100 yard dashes.

Seniors Learn Of Job Prospects

Just what is expected of high school graduates seeking jobs was disclosed to graduating seniors of Campbell Union High School when representatives of the Santa Clara Valley Personnel Association conducted a forum on the subject Thursday, May 25, at the school. Similar to the forum conducted by the same association at local colleges, the forum divided seniors into two groups for discussion. A general question period was conducted in the afternoon and a special motion picture was shown.

Personnel Association members who participated in the program are Eugene Andres, Continental Can Company; Emmett Britton, PG&E; Kenneth Johnson, Owens-Corning Fiberglass Corporation; Robert Klein, City of San Jose; Bert Legg, Richmond Chase Company; Phil Olsen and C. W. Shockley, Food Machinery and Chemical Corporation; and Richard G. Wells, California Prune and Apricot Growers' Association.

SPRING FOOTBALL PRACTICE BEGINS

School is in the last of the fourth quarter now, and with it comes spring training, the three weeks before the end of school which are intended to snap football minded athletes out of the old familiar sickness, "Spring Fever" which comes at this time of year. At these practice sessions newcomers to the game are introduced to the fundamentals, and the experienced ball players have a chance to pick up where they left off and get back into the swing of things.

The uniforms have been handed out, insurance fees have been paid, and now the boys are ready to settle down to work on the turf. Exercises and hard practice, learning to handle the ball, block and tackle correctly, all add up to the development of a championship football team. A lot of hard work is involved, but the fun and physical advantages are well worth it.

This coming season promises a large turnout, as the sign-ups for spring practice indicates. Although most of the varsity of last year graduates this year, many are out to replace them.

PEARSON, HAYDN S.
THAT DARNED MINISTER'S SON, 1950.

A book about homelier things and an era that is past, it is arranged into parts: The Church on the Village Green, The District School, Ginger and Spice, Down on the Farm, The Hali Whatnot, and The Day of the Fringed-top Surrey. Each of these parts contains its own collection of anecdotes. Haydn Pearson's father was both a minister and a farmer, and many an anecdote is concerned with his father's engaging way of blending farming with religion. This collection of reminiscences is a reading experience that you will remember for a long time.

CHIDESTER, ANNE.
MOON GAP, 1950.

In 1942 Anne Chidester made her debut with the novel, Young Pandora. Like many first novels it was the story of childhood and youth, and in it the author expressed her own passionate response to life. The reader felt the impact of a new and original writer. Since then Miss Chidester has published three other novels, one of them the unusual "Mama Maria's." This, the fourth, is another original. No one else could have written it. Moon Gap was an eerie ghost town at the northern edge of the Mojave Desert. Many of the fine buildings still stood marking where the streets had been, the rotten wood crumbling and breaking as the days went by in an atmosphere of slow disintegration. There are only four characters in the book, but there are many winds that stir and many emotions in the heart.

WHITE, LESLIE TURNER.
LORD JOHNNIE, 1949.

An adventure story whose swagging hero is Lord Johnnie, the illegitimate son of an English aristocrat and whose exciting life leads from London to 18th century New York. Living by his wits, he marries the Lady Leanna when he is about to be hanged and escapes to begin his life of roguery. Historical research and keen observation place this high on the list of popular historical novels.

PEEPLER, SAMUEL A.
THE DREAM ENDS IN FURY, 1949.

The bandit, Joaquin Murrieta, is portrayed in this swiftly moving story of the gold rush days in California. The young Mexican, who through race prejudice saw his brother murdered and his young wife raped and murdered, swore revenge and embarked upon a career of banditry and brutality which made his name notorious even in those days of violence and lawlessness. This spirited tale is full of adventure and excitement and compels interest until the final startling climax.

STONEBAKER, FLORENCE.
A SHELF FULL OF DREAMS, 1949.

In lighter fiction, here is a delightful story about Sally Fender of Parkersburg, a nice, sensible girl who was loved by all who knew her. She was the kind of person to whom one turned in time of trouble. Her mother, sister and brother, as well as her fiancé were in the habit of depending on her. Then Sally inherited ten thousand dollars from her Aunt Amanda and it was her opportunity to do something for herself at last. Sally had always dreamed of a little book shop of her own, and although her family did not approve, she went ahead with her plans. "Shelf Full of Dreams" is a story of dreams come true.

FOX, EMMET.
ALTER YOUR LIFE, 1950.

An inspiring and helpful book, especially in times like these, when spiritual values are so overshadowed by A-bombs and H-bombs. We are hardly sure that anything is left in the world which is indestructible. Here is a book with an individual message.

Third Grade Visits Press During Study Of Town

Third grade pupils from Campbell Elementary School, under supervision of their teacher, Miss Susan Sikes, visited the Campbell Press Thursday afternoon as part of their study project of the town of Campbell. Miss Sikes was assisted by James Thomas, student teacher from San Jose State College.

The 33 pupils in the group also called on Mrs. Charlotte Sutter, oldest Campbell resident, who told them about the early days of the community. She gave each one of her visitors a stick of candy when they departed. Mrs. Sutter served the candy in a silver dish awarded her at the Old Settlers' Day program last February 22 when she was named the oldest settler present. A tour of Campbell Avenue down to the cannery completed the day's trip.

This was the third such tour which the third graders have made during their study of the community. On previous excursions they have visited the old school buildings and grounds, the present Campbell High School, the two homes in which Benjamin Campbell, founder of the town, lived; the Methodist Church, oldest church building in Campbell; the Congregational Church, second oldest church building; the home of Dr. Corey, first doctor in the community; the former bank building now occupied by the G. E. Farley offices, and the dehydrator.

Does Pete Mancuso's New Freeholder Committee really want a good charter?

... or is the Mancuso group really out to protect our present, out of date, inefficient structure of County government?

Aren't the "selfish interests" who fear efficient, responsive County government behind the New Freeholder Committee? Aren't these the same "selfish interests" who attacked the 1948 Charter on a technicality in the courts... after YOU, the voters, approved it?

The record shows them to be one and the same.

Mr. Mancuso

led the fight against the Charter prior to its adoption by the voters in 1948.

Mr. Mancuso

attacked the Charter on a technicality in the courts after it had been approved by the voters.

Mr. Mancuso

is one of the organizers of the New Freeholder Committee and serves as its Chairman.

Mr. Mancuso

is, himself, a candidate for the office of Freeholder on the New Freeholder Committee slate.

Mr. Mancuso

is president of the Santa Clara County Employees Association.

Can it be that certain "selfish interests" within County Government are seeking to thwart the will of the voters? Do they fear scrutiny under a democratic, efficient Charter form of County Government? Are they placing their "personal" interests above those of the 270,000 citizens and taxpayers who pay their salaries?

Branch Delegates Attend State AAUW Annual Convention At Sacramento

Four members of Los Gatos-Saratoga branch, American Association of University Women, returned to their homes Sunday after attending the 29th annual convention of the California State Division of AAUW. They are Mrs. McSwain Jones, Mrs. George C. Peacock, Mrs. Eleanor Edwards and Miss Caroline Smiley.

The convention was held in Sacramento at the Hotel Senator, May 19 and 20. Theme of the conference was "Educating Women for Today's Issues."

Mayor Dorothy McCullough Lee of Portland, Oregon, spoke at one of the convention luncheons on "Women in Public Affairs," stressing the point that the curse of America is apathy. It takes hard work to be a good citizen, and citizens of the United States must take time out to give the government what strength it needs, she stated. "The foundation of good national government is good town government. We must arouse in our youth an appreciation of being American citizens."

Round table conferences were conducted Friday afternoon on such subjects as membership, Miss Ellen Deering, registrar of the College of the Pacific, speaker; Motion Pictures, Mrs. Hulda McGinn, representative of the California Theaters Ass'n., speaker; and program. In the social studies conference, a panel was presented on "Mid-century White House Conference."

Dr. Peter Odegard, of the department of political science at the University of California, spoke on "Education for Civic Responsibility" during a conference dinner. He particularly stressed the point that U. S. citizens should give more time to party politics to weaken pressure groups which are undermining the national government. "Support and work for the party of your choice," he urged. He also advocated participation and cooperation in community government.

At the Saturday breakfast, the branch presidents gave one-minute reports. Mrs. McSwain Jones, as outgoing president of the Los Gatos-Saratoga branch, spoke for her group. Of the 73 branches in California, 64 were represented at the conference. Total membership in the California branches is 14,000, the largest state membership in the country.

During the general morning session, revision of state AAUW laws was the main business. At the Fellowship Luncheon, three foreign students who are studying in California under AAUW fellowships spoke on the topic, "A Force in Forging International Understanding." The speakers were Ruth Nichols, Guatemala; Moak Sang Tsao, China, and Camille Montgomery, Australia.

Round table conferences were conducted in Education, by Emmett Berry, chief of the bureau of School District Organization; Fellowship, Legislation, Radio and Television and Status of Women. Speakers for the latter were Dr. Ruth Frary. A debate on the pros and cons of the Equal Rights amendment was presented by Mrs. E. C. Lanphier, regional vice-president, and Dr. Rosalind Bates, Los Angeles attorney.

Dr. Laurence Sears, professor of American Philosophy and Political Theory of Mills College, was the principal speaker at the final conference dinner. His topic was "Walking Backward into the Future." "Like it or not," Dr. Sears said, "this is still one world. It is up to us to help alleviate the world's poverty which is the basis of communism or fascism. It is cheaper by far to appropriate three billion dollars for world aid than to spend 12 billion dollars a month for war costs."

Mrs. Ray Townsend of Long Beach was installed as president of the state organization, taking over the two-year term of office from retiring president Mrs. Forster Rand Smith of Palo Alto. Mrs. Walter Fell of San Francisco became the recording secretary, and Miss Thelma Barnes of Alhambra, corresponding secretary.

Horseshoe Results

Here are the final results for the first annual Campbell High horseshoe tournament:

Singles: Ray Robinson defeated Ed Cox for the championship. Doubles: Dick Farnham and Gil Garza defeated Ike Stephens and Dick Chapman.

The bulk of the Redwood forests of California lie in Sonoma, Mendocino, Humboldt and Del Norte Counties.

Cupertino Grange Hears Report On Spraying Law

Visitors present were Allan (Pete) Lindsay of Coyote Grange and George Gray of Mt. Hamilton. John Breeding, reporting for the legislative committee, stated that a law has been passed requiring a license for commercial spraying and that orchards should be posted to inform people when spraying is to be done. Ernest Angelo reported for the sales-ship contest committee that the first award for individual winners will be an eighteen cubic foot deep freeze unit.

A meeting of the County Fair booth committee was called for Tuesday, May 30, at the home of Paul Bean. During a discussion of the valley water situation Bean suggested a way to conserve water while irrigating. He also urged all grangers to cast their votes in the Tuesday, June 6, primary election.

A book of poems written by grange women of the state was presented to the grange by Mary Breeding, in behalf of the Home Economics Club, this book to be in the custody of the lecturer, George Ames immediately asked for the book and read several interesting poems for the benefit of members. A. L. McAllister reported that a sign will be placed in front of the hall to inform all persons concerned of the time and place of grange meetings.

It was announced that the next meeting of Pomona Grange will be held Saturday, June 4, at the Almaden Union School, with Almaden Grange as hosts. The mystery box was won by A. P. Lindsay. School Journalism Workshop Planned

A four-day School Journalism Workshop will be held at San Jose State College from June 27 to 30, inclusive, under the sponsorship of the college journalism department. It is intended primarily for high school and junior high school teachers of journalism, for advisers of school newspapers and yearbooks and for elementary school teachers and prospective teachers interested in school publications.

During the four-day workshop session all phases of editing and publishing school newspapers and yearbooks will be demonstrated with actual participation in many of the steps, such as taking pictures, making layouts and writing copy and headlines.

A number of firms serving scholastic journalism will exhibit their products and explain their services.

One and one-half quarter units of college credit will be given to those taking the course, many of whom will remain at the college for the Summer Session opening July 3.

VOTE YES JUNE 6 COUNTY GOVERNMENT CENTER

IT WON'T INCREASE YOUR TAXES

Even the anonymous opponents — a few downtown San Jose landlords and parking lot owners — now admit the county has a building fund to finance necessary buildings.

IT WON'T REQUIRE A BOND ISSUE

It would provide space for necessary buildings year by year, built from current funds, whereas any downtown multi-storied alternative would require bonds.

IT WILL SAVE YOUR TIME

The center is located near the crossing of the county's major highways, near the northern end of San Jose, convenient to every citizen who would have business to do there.

IT WILL SAVE YOUR MONEY

No parking meter worries while hunting the office you want among 40 scattered locations through downtown San Jose traffic.

IT IS NEEDED NOW

Because of the press for office space the county alone last year had to waste over $100,000 in temporary makeshifts to replace outgrown or unsafe quarters.

THE ONLY SOUND PLAN

Your vote confirms the judgment and years of study by grand juries, citizens committees, city and county planning commissions. It confirms the judgment of both the City Council of San Jose and the Board of Supervisors who bought the site for center purposes two years ago—IN THE FIRST JOINT ACTION OF THEIR HISTORY.

When you vote "Yes" for the Government Center you are joining your judgment with other citizens and organizations who have never been ashamed to sign their names in support of this proposal.

POPULAR RECORDS: These past few months the kiddies have made quite an impression on the record buying public as witness the popularity of Rudolph The Red Nosed Reindeer, Peter Cottontail, and the harmonica novelty, I Found My Mama. The latest of these songs aimed at both the kids and the adults is the clever kiddity BUFFALO BILLY (Mercury 5420). Roberta Quinlan delivers a zingy vocal on this cute oat-tune. The backing by the Harmonicats and Jan August neatly showcases Miss Quinlan's efforts. This is one the whole family will enjoy—remember the fun you had playing Cowboys & Indians?

The moon-in-June kids will cuddle closer when they hear the Andrews Sisters spooning the love-laden lyrics of I WANNA BE LOVED (Decca 27007). Patty Andrews pours her heart out on this sentimental ode and the other two sisters add close, subdued harmony throughout.

MY SAN FERNANDO ROSE (Capitol 940) is a toe-tapping eight to the bar ditty with a nice swing and a moving lilt. Ted Williams sings in his relaxed easy style with an orchestral backing.

The ever-lovin' jazz oldie MUSK-RAT RAMBLE has taken a new lease on life via this Phil Harris recording (Victor 20-3723). Phil sings the vocals with deep resonating tones. Personally I prefer the rowdy, free-wheeling ragtime-ish interpretation given this jazz standard by Lu Watters and the Yerba Buena Jazz Band. (Jazz Man No. 3).

Ronnie Munro and his Orchestra have just issued a collection of VICTOR HERBERT MELODIES (London PLE 164). These are all instrumentals played in the smooth, sophisticated styling that characterizes Ronnie Munro's work. Favorite selections included in this collection are Ah! Sweet Mystery of Life, Indian Summer, 'Neath the Southern Moon, A Kiss in the Dark, Kiss Me Again, Gypsy Love Song, When You're Away and Sweethearts.

CHILDREN'S RECORDS: Bobby Benson's Bar-B-Bar Riders have been quite popular with the youngsters via the comic books and his radio adventures broadcast over the Mutual Network. Now Bobby tells the STORY OF THE GOLDEN PALOMINO on records (Decca K-2). This is an exciting adventure with wild horses, lions, horse thieves and the like, but the kids will love it.

CLASSICAL RECORDS: The appealing sincerity and simplicity of Haydn's music answers a need in our hurried and troubled world. After many years of practically a starvation diet as far as new Haydn recordings were concerned the record companies are now treating us to a feast. While this flood of Haydn recordings is most welcome by the collector, it is a little hard on the budget.

The characterization of Haydn's music—symmetrical design, nicely balanced phrases, clear tonalities and the sunshine of the major mode are all present in his SYMPHONY NO. 103 "Drum Roll" (London LPS 124). George Solti conducts the London Philharmonic Orchestra in a deeply sympathetic interpretation. While appealing to most of us on the first hearing, this Symphony will continue to reveal unexpected depths and delights after repeated playings.

Haydn's SYMPHONY NO. 94 "Surprise" is a favorite with all music lovers for its spontaneous flow of melody, its simple beauty and charm, its human warmth and formal perfection. Hans Schmidt-Isserstedt and the Berlin Philharmonic Orchestra bring an air of freshness and delight to their interpretation that will cheer your heart. (Capitol KCM 8021).

Haydn's SYMPHONY NO. 101, "The Clock" is one of my special favorites. Arturo Toscanini and the NBC Symphony Orchestra play this gay and ingenious music with refreshing simplicity (Victor LM 1038).

These three Symphonies are among the group written for the Salomon Subscription Concerts during Haydn's two visits to England. Written toward the end of a long and prolific life, Haydn described the music in the words—"suffused with the sense of mellowness and maturity, of long experience and an old age honorably won; too serene for passion, too wise for sadness, too single-hearted for regret, it has learned the lesson of life and will question its fate no further."

Ground was broken for the first cable street railway in San Francisco on June 2, 1873.

As the small businessman is peculiarly identified with that vast, middle-of-the-road segment of America's population, the non-organized voter group, it is doubtless only natural that during recent years the politics of aid to small business have far overshadowed the economics involved.

The fact remains, however, that to chart a sound economic path for small business, the economic facts of life cannot be joggled around to fit changing political trends.

Behind it all are the real issues: Is government aid necessary for small business to operate successfully? and does small business want government assistance?

President Truman, in urging aid for the small businessman, has recommended to Congress a five-point program for government financing of small concerns.

The President's program contemplates the following action:
1. Provide government insurance of bank loans up to $25,000 plus five years' maturity to meet credit and capital needs of "very small business concerns."
2. Federal government charter of national investment companies, to be established and owned by private institutions but supervised by the government. The idea here is that such organizations would make available equity capital and long-term loans to businesses which are unable to finance themselves through normal channels.

3. Let the Reconstruction Finance Corporation relax its collateral requirements on small business loans. The President further proposed that the maturity date of business loans be extended to 15 years from the present 10.

4. Under the Commerce Department, set up a clearing house of technical information to be disseminated to small business.

5. Rest the responsibility and management of the program in the Department of Commerce. Toward that end, the President already has forwarded to Congress a reorganization plan which would place the RFC in the Commerce Department.

In essence, the Administration program amounts to making credit more readily available to small business—and giving the government greater control over the activity of small business.

What does the small businessman think of all this?

In the first place, every businessman, small or large, recognizes that private banks do not now, never did in the past, and will not in the future loan venture capital—that is, unsecured money for capital expansion. Banks loan only business money for working capital or on proper security. When expansion is contemplated, business must usually secure funds from its own capital reserve or by floating stock. Banks cannot loan their depositors' funds for speculative investment. Depositors may themselves buy stocks and bonds if they wish to gamble with their money. That is part and parcel of the private enterprise system.

By the same token, what right has the government to secure loans for capital expansion by gambling with the taxpayers' dollars? That is a decision, under the American system of government, each individual taxpayer must make for himself. When the government starts risking the taxpayer's dollar for him, America will be operating under another form of government—socialism.

Furthermore, as to the government providing assistance to small businessman, already it is a question whether or not they can afford it. Here are some of the taxes for government services presumed to be rendered which the small businessman pays today in many California communities:

City license tax. City sales tax. City income tax. State sales tax. State "use" tax on materials leased or bought outside California. State corporate income tax. State corporate franchise tax. State unemployment insurance tax. Federal social security tax. Federal corporate income tax. Personal state income tax. Personal federal income tax.

One California small businessman sums it up this way: "All any little businessman wants is to be left alone to run his own business. . . . I don't want any financial or other kind of so-called help from Government. It is not worth the red tape." He noted that "doing the Government's work"—acting as a tax collector, etc.—costs him annually about 200 hours of his own time, worth a minimum of $1000, plus $25 a month for a bookkeeper he would not need otherwise. He concluded: "Every time the politicians dream up some way of helping small business, they choke us more with regulations and time-consuming activity. They drive you absolutely crazy!"

Including its approaches, the bridge spanning the Sydney, Australia, Harbor, is 23 miles long.

WATER...NOT WORDS

This valley is draining away its water supply at the rate of 600 acre-feet a day.

Every ten minutes it pumps out almost an acre-foot more water than it puts back into its underground storage.

This terrible rate of drain has been going on, night and day, during the past three dry years . . . years of talk, talk, talk about it.

We Must ACT... And ACT NOW

There are supplies of unused water to the north, east and south of this valley, more than sufficient to replenish our supplies.

That water can be gotten here by hard, stubborn and steadfast effort.

BY ACTING NOW, we can get that water . . . from the Calaveras . . . San Jose's treated water a year hence . . . the San Lucas supply from the Salinas basin the year after if we see that work on the dam and gravity canal is rushed.

More distant and more costly Central Valley supplies can meanwhile be picked up to keep pace with our future growth by pushing ahead on this steady program of action.

WHAT'S STOPPING US?

People who think words mean action are wasting another dry, construction year in talk.

They say it is "disservice" to call for action now . . . that we should wait for another state water report to come out this fall . . . a report whose contents are already known.

Another "talker" told a recent political meeting that what's needed is "someone in Sacramento who can work around corners."

Action to these people consists of writing letters and making "confidential" telephone calls to those with whom I am working for action, saying "Please tell us it can't be done . . ."

I never served a customer or made the success I have of my business by "working around corners," waiting for a report on something I already know, or writing letters asking anyone to tell me why I shouldn't do something I was called upon to do.
